In this year of our Lord 1976 we are honoring our country on the occasion of its 200th birthday—a country whose beginning roots were firmly established in the principle that except the Lord build the house they labor in vain that build it. It seems fitting on this occasion that we also show honor to a couple whose adherence to this principle has been exemplified in the growth of Grace Schools—Dr. and Mrs. Herman A. Hoyt.

The Hoyts have been associated with Grace Schools since its inception in 1937. Dr. Hoyt, after having served as a teacher and then an administrator for several years, became president of Grace in 1962. At the end of this year Dr. Hoyt will once again assume a new position, that of chancellor. During the 39 years the Hoyts have spent at Grace, Mrs. Hoyt has continued to serve the school through serving her husband. This dear godly woman has faithfully filled the role of standing beside her husband since their marriage in 1930. It is with a deep sense of appreciation that we dedicate the 1976 Heritage to this couple so dedicated to US!

“Grace College was accepted as a Recognized Candidate for Accreditation in the spring of 1973. It has been growing steadily since. None of its strengths are new, patched together or cosmetic. They are basic to what the college is.” So reads a part of the report sent to the college from the North Central Association. After three years of hard work, Grace gained full accreditation in 1976. Shown above are members of the Association and the self-study group that helped bring about the college’s new status. At left, Dr. Hoyt accepts a congratulatory plaque presented by several of the city’s civic groups.

Special Speakers Highlight Chapel

The daily chapel period at Grace College provided a time for students to sleep, study, but most importantly to be spiritually challenged. Chaplain Jenkin's leadership helped secure teachers and speakers for the sessions during the year. A number of capable men were brought to Grace including Knute Larson (2), Steve Bolt (3), Bill Glass (4) and Colonel Heath Bottomly (1). These men brought spiritual challenge to the student body. Interspersed throughout the year were a number of special bicentennial presentations by Professor Steve Grill, Randy Maxson, Jane Lengyel and Steve Munday. Each portrayed an American figure important in the historical development of our nation.

The dorm provides a place for individual Bible Study as well as opportunities for group devotions and dorm Bible Studies. Chaplain Jenkins (below, left) uses an M-1 during the Beta Bible Study to graphically illustrate a point.

“Christian Service” isn’t a one-act play, to be performed once a week and reported once a month; rather, Christian service is a way of life. It really consists of Christians caring—caring enough to share their time and talents. And whether it’s illustrating the Bible through magic or praising God in song, these and other Grace students know what it means to “serve Christ.”

... COMPETITION

Soccer Team No.1!

The Grace College soccer team ended the '76 season in the number one position in District III. The Lancer booters defeated Grand Rapids Baptist College 2-1 to capture the NCCAA district play-offs. # "An Evening With George and Martha"

"Come dressed as one of your ancestors" the announcement read, and they did. Grace students flocked to the Lamp on April 24th attired in nostalgic regalia to attend this year's SAB nostalgia. A variety of people attended "An Evening With George and Martha Washington." They ranged from Daniel Boone to "our national bird." The highlight of the evening came with the introduction of George and Martha, played by Vic Derenzo and Kathy Kincarte. Bicentennial cake and ice cream was enjoyed by everyone and the film "The Great Race" was shown.

Freshman Initiation -The Tribulation

A thief in the night . . . or rather, the morning. What is this? The rapture? No, it is initiation—a trying time of tribulation. Time to hit the showers (cold, of course) and turn the clothes inside out.

Each freshman must receive the “mark of the sophomores” before going for the traditional serenade.

Flour, water, and rolling in the dew. If this is what the Tribulation will be like, I’m sure glad I won’t be here.

1) Initiation can be a humiliating experience. 2) Freshmen “roll” into a new year. 3) An early morning serenade is enjoyed by Dr. and Mrs. Uphouse. 4) The “mark of the sophs” requires no utensils for Cindy Mann’s breakfast. 5) Neatness is not a requirement for Doug Strader’s breakfast this morning.

Fall Retreat - A Time for Relaxation

The first few weeks are over—they are the hardest and now there is a chance to relax. Epworth Forest. Fall Retreat. How about lunch, then a game of soccer? If you are not too tired, let's take a walk on the beach. We can watch the sun set at the end of a beautiful day.

Sue Downs Crowned Homecoming Queen

Coronation of Sue Downs as Homecoming Queen on Friday, October 3, began "A New Dawn".

Also reigning were attendants Kim Osborne, Nancy Moore, Kathy Shirley, Kay Hoffman, and Brenda Frazier.

After the coronation the court was honored at a reception at the Winona Hotel. From the Hotel, the Pep Club led the participants to the Athletic field for a bonfire pep rally.

Saturday dawned a busy program for the court as it reigned over the Grace-Huntington Soccer match which the Lancers lost 3-2 in an overtime. The evening events included the Alumni Banquet at the Fairground's Shrine Building and a musical concert at the Rodeheaver Auditorium.

Valentines Hear Positive Side

Unlucky spells broke as couples used February's Friday the 13th to celebrate Valentine's Day at the Winona Hotel. A banquet meal of fruit cocktail, rib eye steak, baked potato, broccoli with cheese sauce and cherry cheesecake preceded the musical entertainment, "Positive Side." The Valentine charm carried to after-banquet retreats such as Ferrell's Ice Cream Parlor in South Bend.

- 1) The Valentine's Banquet holds precious memories for special couples.
- 2) Valentine's Day—a time for sharing hearts.
- 3) "Positive Side" from Ft. Wayne Bible College furnished music.

Campus comic, Vic DeRenzo, decided to carry his capers into a prank at Ferrell's Ice Cream Parlor in South Bend. Fortunately for the prankee, the prankster's idea back-fired and Vic was left holding the spoon for a birthday sundae even though it wasn't his birthday.

Frosh-Soph Banquet at Ft. Wayne

This year the freshman and sophomore classes returned to the Heritage House in Ft. Wayne for the Freshman-Sophomore banquet on March 26. Couples enjoyed a delicious meal, choosing what they wanted from a vast array of dishes on the smorgasbord. Following the meal "Renaissance" provided entertainment in the form of contemporary-gospel music.

Coming in search of their long lost children, many parents visited the campus on April 30 - May 2. Varied activities provided opportunities for families to get together. The next gale, that sweeps from the north, will bring to our ears that clash of resounding arms! Our brethren are already in the field! Why stand we here idle? What would they have? Is life so dear, or peace so sweet, as to be purchased at the price of chains and slavery? Forbid it, Almighty God! I know not what course others may take; but as for me, give me liberty or give me death!

Dorm Activities

Complete Social Circle

An important part of college life is the dorm. It's strange how close of friends you become when you live together. Life in the dorm is never dull. From the time you walk in to meet that stranger called "a roommate" to the last night when, with a roommate called "friend" you TP someone's door, the action never stops.

The Sophomore choir tour through Ohio, Pennsylvania, and Maryland over spring break further united a class already characterized by close ties. 1) "Horsing around" after a quick stop for lunch was just one way of releasing energy before reloading the bus for another long ride. 2) Sophomore choir president Brent Wilcoxson, Mike Yocum, and secretary, Cathy Brauchler flaunt the choir's mascot. 3) Marvin England and Dave Rank take a short break between concerts at Middlebranch, Ohio. 4) The choir was always well fed at each of the churches they visited, but they received a special treat when the church in Lancaster, Pennsylvania took them out to eat at "Plain and Fancy" where they enjoyed a family style meal.
